

School Year 2009-2010 Attendance Calendar, Schedule of Attendance Periods, and Notes on Reporting for Purposes of the PAR July 21, 2009

Section 4(d) was revised to reflect the rescheduling of the second June clerical shortened session to Thursday, June 17, 2010.

The above cited attendance calendar, attendance period schedule, notes on reporting for purposes of the PAR (Period Attendance Report) and the attendance contact list are attached for your use. Principals, Pupil Accounting Secretaries, and school personnel involved in scanning, updating and verifying data entered into the ATS system, should refer to them throughout the 2009-2010 school year for attendance reporting purposes.

(1) The STUDENT ATTENDANCE CALENDAR (Attachment 1) is based on the maximum number of days that schools can schedule students for attendance or Regents examinations. The number of days differs from the school year calendar for 2009-2010 because that calendar also accounts for state aidable days. Since the calendar of Holy Days is automatically reported by ATS, that calendar is not attached. In accordance with New York City Department of Education policies, student absences resulting from appropriately documented religious obligations, and from appropriately documented released time for religious instruction on Wednesday afternoons, should be annotated in ATS with the relevant Reason Code. For additional information regarding the "Religious Accommodation of Students," consult Chancellor's Regulation A-630 on the DOE website (click "Rules and Policies," and then "Chancellor's Regulations").

(2) The SCHEDULE OF ATTENDANCE PERIODS (Attachment 2) lists the due dates for electronic signoff of the PAR.

(3) The NOTES ON REPORTING ATTENDANCE AND FOR PURPOSES OF THE PAR (Attachment 3) should serve as a guide throughout the year.

(4) The PERIOD ATTENDANCE REPORT (PAR) CONTACT LIST (Attachment 4) is to serve when there are questions.

Thank you for your cooperation.
